

ANIMAL GEOGRAPHIES/ANIMAL SPACES

New research directions

21 May 2018
10.30-16.30

Aula Pagani (Building U7 – 3rd floor)

10.30 -12.30 THEORETICAL APPROACHES

Chair Elena dell’Agnese (University of Milano-Bicocca)

Richard White (Sheffield Hallam University)

The Need for Critical Animal Geographies: Some Thoughts and Reflections

Ophélie Veron (University of Louvain)

Towards Antispeciesist Geographies: Engaging with Nonhuman Animals as Social Actors and Research Subjects

Simon Springer (University of Victoria)

Total Liberation Ecology: Integral Anarchism, Anthroparchy, and the Violence of Indifference

14.30 -16.30 CASE STUDIES AND RESEARCH PERSPECTIVES

Chair Chiara Giubilaro (University of Milano-Bicocca)

Annalisa Colombino (University of Graz) and Paolo Palladino (Lancaster University),
On Movement and the Art of Being Together

Marco Nocente (University of Milano-Bicocca)

Dogs and Humans Relationship in the Interaction Order

Paolo Giaccaria (University of Turin)

Turning Bios into Bare Life: the Reproduction of Piedmontese Cattle

Elena dell’Agnese (University of Milano-Bicocca)

“What Harm do Animals do”: Biocentric Perspectives in Indra Shina’s Animal’s People