

Dark Skies book launch

Reattunement, Re-enchantment and Redistribution

To celebrate the publication of Dark Skies: Places, Practices, Communities we are bringing together a special colloquium featuring three thematic panels, each exploring different dimensions and future directions for dark skies, the places we encounter them and the communities that form around them.

Thursday 30 November 2023

Venue: Imagination Lab, A36, LICA Building, Lancaster University, LA1 4YW

9.30 Arrivals and coffee, foyer, LICA Building

10.00 Welcome and Overview – Tim Edensor and Nick Dunn

10.30 Reattunement: how do we make sense of dark sky places
Speakers: Louise Beer, Helen McGhie and Natalie Marr
Respondent: Nina Morris

11.15 Re-enchantment: how can we reconnect with dark skies
Speakers: Georgia MacMillan and Hannah Dalglish, Neha Khetrapal, Tim Edensor
Respondent: Rob Shaw

12.00 Break

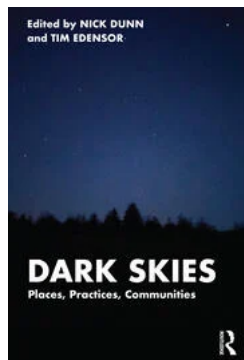

12.15 Redistribution: how might we design for nocturnal sensibilities
Speakers: Kerem Asfuroglu, Taylor Stone, Elisabeth de Bezenac and Nick Dunn
Respondent: Claire Downey

13.00 Reflections and wrap up.

13.15 Lunch

14.00 Good lighting TAN: Lorayne Wall and Kerem Asfuroglu

14:30 Close

<https://www.routledge.com/Dark-Skies-Places-Practices-Communities/Dunn-Edensor/p/book/9781032528021>