

Work on the Move Workshop

Monday 16th March 2015, Training Room 1, Lancaster House Hotel

9:30-10:15 Arrivals and coffee

10:15-10:30 Welcome and introductions (Lisa Wood)

10:30-10:50 Donald Hislop
Loughborough University
The liminality of business travel and demands for 'constant connectivity'

10:50-11:10 Reinhard Gressel
IFSTAR-SPLOTT, Paris
Mobile workers, managing constraints, involved in multiple subordination, composing virtual "working collectives" to break up isolation

11:10 - 11:30 Coffee

11:30-11:50 Alan Beattie
Lancaster University
Regimes of mobilisation in World War I: Discipline and dissidence

11:50-12:10 Alastair Roy
University of Central Lancashire
Narratives in Movement: Exploring welfare practice through the lens of mobility

12:10-12:30 Jacek Pawlak
Imperial College London
Work on the move literally: exploring challenges of investigating practices of and motivations for work while travelling

12:30-12:50 Lucy Easthope
University of Lincoln
Mobile work in mass fatalities

13:00- 14:00 Lunch

14:00-14:10 Future Destinations (Lisa Wood)

14:10-14:30 Harry Ferguson
University of Nottingham
Social work on the move

14:30-14:50 Steve Wright
Lancaster University
What can informal mobile learning teach us?

15:00-15:20 Coffee

15:20-15:50 Tom Hall & Robin Smith
University of Cardiff
When moving is the work: some conceptual distinctions drawn from the case of outreach work with the street homeless

15:50-16:00 Lisa Wood: Future Destinations summary

16:00-16:15 Close- James Faulconbridge